TAUSCHER IS SHOWN AS DYNAMITE BUYER

Government Traces Explosives Meant to Blow Up Welland Canal.

SURPRISES FOR DEFENCE

Seldom has a court session been filled with so many quick, dramatic surprises as Roger B. Wood, Assistant United States Attorney, presented yesterday in prosecuting Capt. Hans Tauscher, German reservist Captain, on the charge of conspiring with Capt, Franz von Papen and others to blow up the Welland Canal in Canada. He had called witness were emphatically dull. He wrung from them admissions that corroborated, detall for detail, the story told on the previous day by Franz Wachendorf, alias Horst von der Goltz.

He was enabled to spring his surprise on the defence as a result of digging up corroborating exhibits that witnesses either had not seen or forgotten about second, by the use of a dossler, marked "Tauscher." which was found in the office of Wolf von lgel, former secretary to Von Papen, at 60 Wall street when Von Igel was arrested.

Before the session ended Mr. Wood had produced evidence to show that Capt. Tauscher had bought the dynamite and some fuses which Von der Goltz and his associates carried to Buf-falo; that he had delivered through an employee six automatic revolvers to Von Ger Goltz in Hoboken. Furthermore, Mr. order, written in Von Papen's own ha directing that a check be drawn Tauscher to pay his bill. These ar other surprises came to the astonisment and bewilderment of Herbert C. Smyth. William F. McCombs, Felix H. Levy, N. R. Lindheim and others of the Tauscher array of defending attorneys.

Henry Muck, mapager for Capt. Presidential nominee at the Astor at transcent was called. He could not identify Von der Goltz, who as Bridgman Taylor had called upon Capt.
